FRUMKIN TO JOIN FRANKLIN COUNTY AUDITOR'S OFFICE AS DATA CENTER CIO

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Experienced business leader Adam Frumkin will join the Franklin County Auditor's office as its Chief Information Officer, Auditor Michael Stinziano announced Monday.

Frumkin has more than 20 years of experience in the public and private sectors, and has served on the board of Public Retirement Information Systems Management (PRISM). He is an adjunct professor at The Ohio State University and Ohio Dominican University and serves as a member of the MBA Advisory Board for Ohio Dominican.

“I am excited to welcome Adam to our talented Franklin County Auditor's office staff, and I'm proud of the outstanding team that we have assembled,” Stinziano said.

Frumkin will join a leadership team including:

Bethany Sanders serving as Director of Policy and Strategic Initiatives. Prior to joining the auditor's office Sanders was legal counsel to the Ohio Senate Democratic Caucus and previously worked for several years as part of the Ohio Council 8, AFSCME, AFL-CIO legal team.

Monica Moran, serving as Director of Communications. Moran most recently served as a labor and communications strategist for the Ohio Nurses Association. Previously, Monica managed ProgressOhio and worked for more than a decade as the Public Affairs Director for SEIU District 1199.

Valarie Johnson-Raimey as Director of Consumer Services. Valarie has more than 20 years of experience in state government, and worked under former Governor Ted Strickland, former Treasurer of State Kevin Boyce and most recently in the legislature for Rep. Fred Strahorn.

In a bid to increase accountability, which was a campaign commitment, Auditor Stinziano created the new role of Open Government and Legal Services Manager, now filled by Gena Miller Shelton. Shelton has a Masters of Nonprofit Administration and earned her law degree from The Ohio State University. She has worked in a variety of nonprofit and public sector positions throughout her career.

John Audet and Gretchen Green are serving as Co-Directors of Human Resources, bringing a new perspective on employee engagement to the Auditor's office. Audet has over 30 years of Human Resources experience in various capacities within the State of Ohio including the Ohio Department of Transportation, Department of Administrative Services and the Department of Public Safety. Green most recently served as Human Resources Director for former Secretary of State Jennifer Brunner, and has Masters degrees in both Public Administration and Labor Relations.
